

IN A SNAPSHOT

Elliott is a skilled consultant who works to inspire people to achieve success, growth, and prosperity. Through communication and sound practical knowledge, he can challenge people and organisations to achieve extraordinary goals, constantly develop, and realise success in measurable ways.

Working as a management consultant in both the UAE and Australia, Elliott has developed the ability to facilitate engaging and powerful workshops that allow all participants the opportunity to contribute. Elliott is skilled at developing streamlined solutions to managing projects, gaining stakeholder buy-in, facilitating workshops, and aligning both survey and communication tools to overall objectives.

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Business Management
- Accredited Human Synergistics Practitioner (LSI and GSI)
- Accredited in Purposeful Teams and Heart of Leadership Programs

EXPERTISE

Elliott's experience, constant adherence to professionalism, and open communication has allowed him to enjoy great success in change and team performance related projects. This has led to the development of key skills in:

- Visioning and Strategic Development Workshops Facilitation
- Blue-sky and Action Planning Workshop Facilitation
- Facilitation of Learning and Development programs such as Leadership, Communication and Conflict
- Team Alignment and Chartering
- Planning and project management
- Development and implementation of survey tools with focuses including – community feedback, strategy, perception, psychometrics and health checks

Consultant Profile

Elliott Stott-Briggs - Management Consultant

- Analysis and reporting of survey and workshop feedback
- Communication of complex and varied perceptions
- Management level one on one coaching
- Building stakeholder engagement and contribution