

IN A SNAPSHOT

Jessica is the practice lead for Performance Practice Group. Through applying her skill set in Performance and Sports Psychology, Neuro-Linguistic Programming, Organisational Development, Leadership and Organisational Capability, she works with individuals and teams to enable, enrich and equip them for Peak Performance.

Jessica is a brilliant facilitator and coach who is trusted and relied upon in Major Capital Projects throughout Australian and New Zealand. She brings expertise in collaborative contracting and a unique ability to help projects succeed through working with the behavioural and cultural levers of a team. Jessica actively supports collaborative contracting as the QLD chairperson for the Alliancing Association of Australasia (AAA).

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Behavioural Science
- Bachelor of Commerce
- Post Graduate Diploma Psychology
- Provisional Psychologist (National)
- Accredited NLP Practitioner
- Cert 4 Assessment & Workplace Training
- Nationally Accredited Workplace Health and Safety Officer (QLD)
- Certified Ontological Coach
- Nationally Certified provider of Mediation and Conflict Resolution Services
- Accredited Cultural Transformation Tools (CTT) Practitioner
- Accredited Human Synergistics Practitioner LSI & GSI, OCI
- Level 1 Accredited Heart of Leadership Facilitator
- Level 1a Accredited Purposeful Teams Facilitator

EXPERTISE

Jessica has consulted to over 50 different organisations and teams during her consulting years. During this period, Jessica has gained valuable expertise in each of the following areas:-

- Peak performance & collaborative teams expertise
- Alliance facilitation, coaching & advice
- Facilitation of workshops and meetings
- Governance and Leadership guidance for special purpose teams
- Team Building workshops and events
- Executive and leadership team development, training and peak performance camp
- Strategic planning, operational and delivery effectiveness reviews
- Advice on achieving outstanding performance culture outcomes
- Development and implementation of culture development & transformation programmes
- Proposal and presentation coaching for alliance and relationship contracts
- Performance coaching and personal development
- Culture and climate surveys; statistical proficiency

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Alliance and Project Team Development as a discipline and effective management tool within the Infrastructure industry has gained momentum over the last decade due to its proven track record. Jessica has been exclusively involved in this exciting growth area and has gained an unprecedented level of knowledge and experience.

Jessica has experience in facilitating over 40 different bid and tender teams, and providing on the ground facilitation and coaching to over 25 different Alliance and Traditional Delivery project teams. Her most recent projects include APLNG Origin Energy, Wellington Tunnels Alliance, Hunter Water Treatment Alliance, Southern Regional Water Pipeline Alliance, Bridgeworks Alliance and the PacificLink Alliance (Tugun Bypass Project).

In addition to this, Jessica has also worked across a diverse range of industries including engineering, construction, mining, building, manufacturing, banking and finance, science and technologies, resources and community services.