

Embedded Team Performance Management

Do you require 'on the ground' performance expertise?

Do you require an embedded consultant to build the culture and capability of your team?

Shape Consulting provides a value for money approach to embed on of our renowned consultants to sit in your team and provide internal coaching and facilitation services to the team. Your consultant will work with you to plan, customised and deliver a customised selection of strategies including:

Leadership Enrichment | developing leaders who will enact and inspire a compelling vision

Team Integration | building teams that 'hum' and collaborate for the greater good

Aligned Delivery | aligning all parties together using a collaborative approach

High Performance Optimisation | building the team's capability to match their potential

Operational Enhancement | aligning processes, structure and roles to the outcomes

Value Assurance | aligning and quantifying the approach against project objectives

Our high calibre, trusted consultants are handpicked to suit your project. Our team's broad portfolio of experience includes private and public projects, alliance and traditional delivery projects, program and project teams, selection preparation and project delivery enhancement services.