

Project Bids and Selection Preparation

Do you want to position your team for that new project?

Our exceptionally talented team of consultants fast track the establishment and development of your team to enable a winning strategy and approach to your bid or tender. We are well integrated into the infrastructure and major project industries to understand the context, contextual models and key players. We also utilise our trusted partnerships to ensure your team get whatever preparation it requires to maximise its chances of success. Our clients engage us across all contract types, including:

- Alliance Contracts
- Operational and Maintenance Contract
- Collaborative Delivery & Integrated Delivery Style Projects
- Early Contractor Involvement (ECI) Projects
- Projects, Packages, Panels and Programs
- Construction, Mining, Building and Development Projects

We provide a complete suite of services, including team selection strategies, tender writing and reviews, presentation and interview preparation and workshop preparation. We work with you from the 'conceptualisation' of the project structure and strategy right through to award, or project completion.
