

Shape Consulting has worked with leading organisations in Australia and New Zealand for over 12 years to align culture with strategy. We love to work with growing organisations to enable the capability of your organisation to manage a broader and deeper portfolio of projects. Using our corporate and project experience, we apply Australian best-practice change management techniques to:

- | Build constructive and achievement-orientated cultures
- | Align the organisational culture to desired safety and quality outcomes
- | Build future leaders and people who thrive on performance
- | Fine tune your organisation's systems to suit the evolving project environment
- | Build lean delivery philosophy to enhance a delivery culture in planning environments
- | Provide coaching and development to enhance strategic project governance

Our exceptionally talented team are renowned for their extensive background and depth of experience in leading and developing resources both in Australia and Internationally across a range of industries. We focus on the strategies that provide the most 'bang for buck' and return on investment.
